Ray announced that the ICC Public Comment Hearings will be held and the results will be submitted to the CdpAccess for the voting process. He encourages members to participate in the process. WABO Bylaws changes proposed at the Annual Business meeting were approved and are effective. Ray provided an overview on WPLBO and the candidate forum that was held in San Francisco. WABO will continue to have meetings on the east side of the mountains to allow eastside members the chance to participate. Ray announced that the Annual Education Institute will be moving to the Lynnwood Convention Center to help reduce attendee expenses that were incurred at the SeaTac venue. Class prices were substantially lowered to help support jurisdictions obtaining their CEU's. Ray reported that he will continue working with the WA Cities Insurance Authority to help recognize the WABO meetings and informed membership that they already recognize the education institute and offer a reduced cost to attend. Ray thanked the membership who are helping out and encouraged others to volunteer.

Second Vice President

Lee announced WABO will be working with ICC to create the WA Custom Codes and hope that General Code can be part of that process. Lee announced that Kurt Latimore, from The Latimore Company, will discuss updating WABO's Strategic Plan and the Big Eight that was presented at WABO's 2018 Annual Business meeting. Lee mentioned he questioned criteria for content on WABO's website amongst the board members and Tom Phillips suggested a website content policy be created.

- There is major confusion around the state regarding stairway pressurization requirements for five story wood buildings and the issue was tabled until council staff could research the original code change from several cycles ago.
- The TAGS have wrapped up their work on the first group of codes and will beginning their work on the second group in the very near future. The standing SBCC committees will begin reviewing the work of the TAGS in September.

Support HB 1402 / SB 5587

House sponsors: Blake, Tharinger, Van Werven, Griffey, Senn

Senate sponsors: Salomon, Takko, Short, Brown, Honeyford, Van De Wege

HB 1402 / SB 5587 would

- minimize regulatory barriers to the use of innovative building construction methods,
- promote energy and water efficiency, and
- accelerate the permit process.

The bill proposes to allow Building Officials to approve alternate building construction methods, changing the law to allow equal fairness for approving code alternates.

This bill also would recognize ISO / IEC 17065 accredited testing agencies as providing valid code compliance reports:

- ISO / IEC 17065 certification is the nationally accepted accreditation standard for testing laboratories.
- If a product has been tested for the intended use it should be allowed to be used in that application.

- Unfunded Mandates: WABO recognizes that jurisdictions have limited fiscal capacity and opposes unfunded and under-funded mandates.
- Seismic Retrofit: WABO supports legislation to assist building owners to retrofit existing seismically vulnerable buildings, in order to protect the public during an earthquake from collapsing structures, and to reduce the impact of seismic events by focusing on promoting economic resiliency of our communities.
