

WABO Honorary Membership Nomination Form

Honorary membership may be bestowed, by vote of the voting representatives, upon individuals that have exhibited outstanding service to the association. Honorary membership benefits include: waived membership dues and registration fees (membership benefits include – member pricing on books, education and newsletter).

| The following person is nominated by | for consideration |
|--|-------------------|
| as an Honorary Member of the Washington Association of Building Officials: | |

Nominee Contact Information

Name: Mailing Address: Phone: E-mail:

When nominating an individual for an honorary membership, the following criteria should be considered to determine if the individual has exhibited outstanding service to the association.

1. Describe how the individual has provided the association with at least 10 years of leadership. This can include time served in an elected position or time served as a committee leader (not necessarily a committee Chair).

2. Describe how many years the individual has regularly attended the association's business meetings.

3. Describe major accomplishments the individual has provided that have benefited and enhanced mission accomplishment of the association.

Approved by a vote of the association's voting members on _

Date